A UNIQUE chance to hear the works of these four towering musical geniuses.

Following the successes of his three-concert Franck series and the closing concert in the Arundel Festival last year, D'Arcy Trinkwon returns to play the beautiful music of four of the great 19th century composers on the famous 1873 Hill organ in Arundel Cathedral.

BRAHMS June 14

Complete works for organ

Prelude & Fugue in A minor
Prelude & Fugue in G minor
Fugue in A Flat minor
Chorale Prelude & Fugue on O Traurigkeit
11 Chorale Preludes, Op.122

"Music is the heart of life. She speaks love. The idea comes to me from outside of me – and is like a gift. I then take the idea and make it my own - that is where the skill lies."
BRAHMS

SCHUMANN June 28

Complete works for organ & pedal-piano

6 Studies in Canon Form, Op.56
4 Sketches, Op. 58
6 Fugues on B.A.C.H., Op.60

"To send light into the darkness of men's' hearts - such is the duty of the artist."
SCHUMANN

MENDELSSOHN July 12

Three Preludes & Fugues, Op.37
Six Sonatas Op.65

"Words...These seem to me so ambiguous, so vague, so easily misunderstood in comparison to genuine music, which fills the soul with a thousand things better than words." MENDELSSOHN

LISZT July 26

Prelude & Fugue on B.A.C.H.
Évocation à la Chapelle Sistine
Variations on Weinen, Klagen, Sorgen, Zagen
Fantasia & Fugue Ad nos, ad salutarem undam

"Music... Without it, there is no possible good and with it everything is beautiful."
LISZT

One of the illustrious virtuoso musicians of his generation, D'Arcy Trinkwon performs worldwide and is acclaimed for his outstanding artistry. He became fascinated by the organ whilst a chorister at Canterbury Cathedral - but it upon hearing Liszt's organ music when he was 12 that he realised his musical vocation. Liszt and his music have remained one of his greatest inspirations and his performances of this epic music have never failed to elicit outstanding praise.

"D'Arcy Trinkwon is a master of phrasing and the sensitivity of his artistry gives new life to the great Romantic works... Apart from his great awareness of nuances, it is this gifted musician's mastery of colour that allows him to further illuminate unimagined perspectives in often complex works... Trinkwon earned enthusiastic applause for his technically immaculate playing and great virtuosity. His splendid, but nevertheless subtle virtuosity combined with considerable artistic integrity to demonstrate that he is one of the truly great artists of his genre."
MÜNCHENER MERKUR

"So much infectious joy radiates from his performance that purists could suffer severe pangs of guilt." ORGANISTS' REVIEW

"You forgot about the virtuosity because the artistry was so compelling." DERBY TELEGRAPH
